

The Storyline of the Bible

*God redeeming
His people for His glory.*

Where am I reading?

- If I am in the Old Testament, the passage is looking forward to Jesus, the cross, Redemption, and Consummation.
- If I am in the New Testament, it's likely revealing the work of Jesus on the cross by explaining theology, worshiping, living, and awaiting Christ's return.
- If I am in the Gospels they are setting the scene for the cross, revealing the Messiah, and ending with Redemption.

*No More Boring Bible Study

The Storyline of the Bible

*God redeeming
His people for His glory.*

Where am I reading?

- If I am in the Old Testament, the passage is looking forward to Jesus, the cross, Redemption, and Consummation.
- If I am in the New Testament, it's likely revealing the work of Jesus on the cross by explaining theology, worshiping, living, and awaiting Christ's return.
- If I am in the Gospels they are setting the scene for the cross, revealing the Messiah, and ending with Redemption.

*No More Boring Bible Study

The Storyline of the Bible

God redeeming His people for His glory.

CREATION
FALL
REDEMPTION
CONSUMMATION

Where am I reading?

- If I am in the Old Testament, the passage is looking forward to Jesus, the cross, Redemption, and Consummation.
- If I am in the New Testament, it's likely revealing the work of Jesus on the cross by explaining theology, worshiping, living, and awaiting Christ's return.
- If I am in the Gospels they are setting the scene for the cross, revealing the Messiah, and ending with Redemption.

*No More Boring Bible Study

The Storyline of the Bible

God redeeming His people for His glory.

CREATION
FALL
REDEMPTION
CONSUMMATION

Where am I reading?

- If I am in the Old Testament, the passage is looking forward to Jesus, the cross, Redemption, and Consummation.
- If I am in the New Testament, it's likely revealing the work of Jesus on the cross by explaining theology, worshiping, living, and awaiting Christ's return.
- If I am in the Gospels they are setting the scene for the cross, revealing the Messiah, and ending with Redemption.

*No More Boring Bible Study

The Storyline of the Bible

God redeeming His people for His glory.

CREATION
FALL
REDEMPTION
CONSUMMATION

Where am I reading?

- If I am in the Old Testament, the passage is looking forward to Jesus, the cross, Redemption, and Consummation.
- If I am in the New Testament, it's likely revealing the work of Jesus on the cross by explaining theology, worshiping, living, and awaiting Christ's return.
- If I am in the Gospels they are setting the scene for the cross, revealing the Messiah, and ending with Redemption.

*No More Boring Bible Study

The Storyline of the Bible

God redeeming His people for His glory.

CREATION
FALL
REDEMPTION
CONSUMMATION

Where am I reading?

- If I am in the Old Testament, the passage is looking forward to Jesus, the cross, Redemption, and Consummation.
- If I am in the New Testament, it's likely revealing the work of Jesus on the cross by explaining theology, worshiping, living, and awaiting Christ's return.
- If I am in the Gospels they are setting the scene for the cross, revealing the Messiah, and ending with Redemption.

*No More Boring Bible Study